

FALL RETREAT 2024

Whether in church or family and relationship dynamics, too many people have been hurt by misuses of power and authority. These wounds lead to division, isolation, and dysfunction. Authority is not a bad word. It is a powerful tool in the Kingdom of God; it is given by God for the good of His Kingdom.

If we are to be true followers of Christ, it is crucial to understand and change unhealthy practices and strive for a more godly authority in our lives. This weekend retreat aims to heal the woundedness caused by misused authority and to redeem the power God gives us as His body. Join us!
